2. Eligibility

Ph.D./M.Eng. Programmes

Candidates can apply for admission to Ph.D./M.Eng programmes. The minimum requirement for admission is a Bachelor's Degree with Honours (at least 2nd Class Lower) or its equivalent.

Applicants who are applying for the Lee Kong Chian Graduate Scholarship/NUS Research Scholarship are expected to have at least a Bachelor's Degree with Honours (at least 2nd Class Upper) or its equivalent.

IMPORTANT NOTE

Candidates with good first degree may apply for direct admission to the Ph.D. programme. Priority for the competitive NUS Research Scholarship will be given to applicants for the Ph.D. programme.

International candidates are expected to submit their TOEFL and GRE/GATE test scores to support their applications.

Candidate should have the ability to pursue research in the candidate's proposed field of advanced study.

3. Scholarships

(A) Lee Kong Chian Graduate Scholarships (available for August 2011 intake only)

The Lee Kong Chian Graduate Scholarships are NUS' most prestigious scholarship awards for graduate students. Up to 5 new awards will be given each year and in keeping with the donor's desire to see its scholars with the appropriate balance of intellect and character, scholarship recipients are selected on the basis of demonstrated academic excellence, leadership, exceptional promise as well as commitment to service.

The bond-free Scholarships are open to all nationalities who will be admitted as a candidate for a Ph.D. programme at NUS. Shortlisted candidates will be notified for a scholarship interview either in Singapore or their home country. Award of the Scholarship is based on competition among eligible candidates and performance at the Scholarship interview.

Each award covers :

- i. A monthly stipend of S$3,300;
- ii. Research, examination fees and other approved fees at NUS as stated on the NUS Student Bill;
- iii. An annual book allowance of S$500;
- iv. A one-off air travel allowance of two return tickets of up to S$4,000 (only for overseas students); and
- v. A one-off laptop allowance of S$1,500.

If you wish to apply for the Lee Kong Chian Graduate Scholarship, please also submit the following documents :

- (a) A personal statement to describe, in less than 300 words, an exceptional achievement that highlights your academic interests and intellectual capacity that would be of value to the NUS community.
- (b) A report (with documentary evidence) on your extra-curricular activities (e.g. committee served, community service, sports etc.), and a statement (less than 300 words) about how you have benefited from such participation, and hope to return something to society.

(B) President's Graduate Fellowship (PGF)

The PGF is awarded to candidates who show exceptional promise or accomplishment in research. A number of Ph.D. research students are selected each semester by the University for the award.

- Monthly stipend may range from S$3,000 – S$3,300 (actual award depends on the quality of candidates)
- Air Ticket (single journey) } for international students
- Settling-in Allowance }
- Fully paid Tuition Fees & No Bond

The award is tenable for up to a maximum of 4 years, subject to an annual review of the scholar's satisfactory progress. Short-listed candidates will be invited to an interview either in Singapore or their home country.

(C) NUS Research Scholarships

The NUS Research Scholarship is available on a competitive basis to full-time research students who meet the requisite criteria. Tuition fees will be fully paid. There is no bond.

	Monthly stipend for Ph.D. Research Scholars
	Pre-QE*	Post-QE*
Singapore Citizens	S$2,500	S$3,000
Singapore Permanent Residents	S$2,200	S$2,700
International Students	S$2,000	S$2,500

*QE-Stipends are increased upon passing the Ph.D. qualifying examination

The main focus of the Faculty is the Ph.D. programme. Priority for the competitive NUS Research Scholarship will be given to applicants for the full-time Ph.D. programme, while only a limited number may be awarded to applicants for the M.Eng. programme. The NUS Research Scholarship for M.Eng will carry monthly emoluments of S$1,500, plus full research fee subsidy.

(D) NUS-DSO PGF Scheme

The NUS-DSO President's Graduate Fellowship Scheme is offered by the Defence Science Organisation (DSO) National Laboratories and NUS to Singaporean graduates who have achieved excellent academic results in Engineering and Science disciplines and are keen to apply their knowledge for defence research and development.

This scholarship scheme is offered to students with first class honours or who have a good honours degree for the Ph.D. programme.

Under this scheme, candidates are awarded a monthly stipend, augmented to $4,000 per month.

(E) NRF (Clean Energy) Ph.D. Scholarships

Candidates may apply for the NRF (Clean Energy) Ph.D. Scholarships. Please apply separately on-line at <http://www.cepo.sg>

Candidates may indicate in the form if they wish to apply for both the NRF (Clean Energy) Ph.D. Scholarships and NUS Research Scholarships.

(F) Singapore International Graduate Award (SINGA)

Candidates may apply for the Singapore International Graduate Award (SINGA). Please apply separately on-line at <https://www.singa.a-star.edu.sg>

(G) Other sponsorships

A limited number of sponsorships from private organisations (having tie-ups with NUS) are also available for suitable candidates. If selected, applicants will receive further information from the sponsoring companies.

4. How to complete the application forms

Application Form

Any omission of information required in the application forms or supporting documents will render the application void and should be avoided. Please complete the application form in English. All supporting documents, if not in English, must be accompanied by copies of the English translation of the documents.

Candidates who intend to apply to more than one department must submit separate sets of application forms. Each set of application form should be accompanied by the necessary supporting documents.

Acknowledgement Slip

The acknowledgement slip, with your name and address clearly printed or typed, should be returned with the completed application form.

Transcript Request Form

An official transcript of academic records is required from each university attended. You are responsible for requesting your transcript from the university concerned. Please use the Transcript Request form for this purpose. If you have attended more than one university, you should make photocopies of the transcript request form as required.

You should request your university to send the transcripts, enclosed in a SEALED envelope with its flap bearing the security seal of the university and the signature of the Registrar or his representative, directly to the department where you are applying to. In the meantime, a copy of the transcript is to be included in the application materials.

Application Fee

Online application: S$20 per application

Paper-based application: S$40 per application

Each programme applied for should be accompanied by the payment of an application fee of S$20/S$40 (inclusive of GST). Do complete the Graduate Application Fee form and submit it together with your cheque/bank draft. Cheques and bank drafts must be made out to "National University of Singapore". The University is unable to refund any excess amount (i.e. bank draft of US dollars more than S$20/S$40). Please refer to the Application F

NATIONAL UNIVERSITY OF SINGAPORE
AWARD OF NUS RESEARCH SCHOLARSHIP
TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Upon award of an NUS Research Scholarship (“Scholarship”), the student (“Scholar”) will receive a monthly stipend and additional stipend (for Ph.D. candidates) where applicable as described in the Annex and a full tuition fee subsidy, i.e. NUS will pay the current applicable tuition fees for the Scholar.
2. (i) The effective date of the Scholarship for incoming students will be the commencement date of the relevant semester or the actual date of registration, whichever is the later. For existing students who are awarded the Scholarship during their candidature, the effective date of the Scholarship will be from a date as stipulated by the relevant faculty or school.
(ii) Notwithstanding the above, for students who are employed as at the time of the award of the Scholarship, the Scholarship will only take effect from the date immediately after he/she has ceased to draw a salary from the employer.
3. The Scholarship is tenable only at the National University of Singapore and the Scholar must reside in Singapore for the duration of the Scholarship. As full-time students, Scholars are expected to report to their Department of study and/or supervisor at the University during the period of the Scholarship, except during periods of approved leave.
4. The Scholarship is tenable for one year in the first instance and thereafter may, subject to the Scholar's satisfactory progress, be renewed each semester at the University's discretion. The maximum period of the Scholarship can range from 1 – 2.5 years for Masters/Graduate Programme candidates and 3 - 4 years for Ph.D. candidates, as determined by the relevant faculty or school in each case.
5. The Scholar undertakes to devote his/her full time and energy to his/her studies and to the best of his/her ability, apply himself/herself to his/her programme of study, to the satisfaction of the University.
6. The Scholar shall, if required by the Head of Department, assist in teaching duties and departmental work (e.g. conducting tutorials/lab demonstration, preparing teaching materials or developing new experiments for teaching purposes, etc) provided:-
 - (i) the total time spent on teaching duties & departmental work does not exceed 400 hours per financial year (commencing on 1 April and ending 31 March of the following year), and usually not more than 16 hours a week;
 - (ii) the Scholar shall only be assigned teaching duties & departmental work if the supervisor and Department are satisfied with his/her progress; and
 - (iii) the Scholar shall be remunerated for performing teaching duties and departmental work at a rate of S$30 - S$60 per hour, save that the Scholar may be asked to perform such work without any remuneration for up to 6 hours a week. Any remuneration paid will be subject to tax and Central Provident Fund payments (for Singapore citizens and permanent residents).
7. Save as provided for in clause 6 above, the Scholar may not accept employment, whether or not he/she is remunerated, or hold concurrently any other scholarship, fellowship, allowance or other award during the period of the Scholarship, without the prior approval of the University. In addition, the Scholar cannot change to a programme of study different from that stated in his/her offer of admission letter or take up any additional course(s) without the prior written permission of the University.
8. The Scholar will cease to receive the Scholarship:

- (i) upon the date of conversion of his/her candidature from full-time to part-time (the Scholar must obtain, by way of written request submitted via the supervisor(s), the written approval of the Vice Dean of Graduate Studies for such a conversion);
 - (ii) where the Scholar submits his/her thesis for examination, upon
 - (a) the date of receipt of the thesis by the Registrar; or
 - (b) the date on which the thesis was certified ready for examination by the supervisor(s) or Head of Department (if the supervisor(s) are not available), whichever is the earlier;
 - (iii) upon the date of expiry of the tenure of the Scholarship as described in clause 4 above. (Note: The monthly stipend for the last month of the Scholarship will only be paid after the relevant Department has certified that the Scholar has no existing liabilities);
 - (iv) immediately without notice if the Scholar withdraws from or fails to complete his/her research programme, for whatever reason; or
 - (v) immediately without notice if the candidature of the Scholar at this University is terminated, for whatever reason.
9. The University reserves the right to terminate the Scholarship:
- (i) immediately at any time without notice if the Scholar is found guilty of a disciplinary offence as defined under the University's statutes or breaches any of the terms and conditions herein;
 - (ii) immediately at any time without notice if the Scholar's progress is not satisfactory; or
 - (iii) at any time by giving one month's notice in writing to the Scholar without assigning any reason.
10. The Scholar may terminate the Scholarship by giving one month's prior notice in writing.
11. If the Scholarship is terminated for any reason whatsoever, the Scholar shall only be entitled to a pro-rated amount of the monthly stipend for any incomplete final month of the Scholarship. If the full amount for the final month has already been paid to the Scholar, he/she must refund immediately the excess amount to the University.
12. The University does not provide any additional assistance towards travel or living costs nor does it guarantee employment to the Scholar upon the successful completion of his/her higher degree candidature.
13. No delay or forbearance of the University to enforce any of its rights and remedies for breach by the Scholar of any of these terms and conditions shall in any way affect or prejudice the University's rights or remedies in respect of such breach, nor will the University's rights and remedies in respect of any other or subsequent breach of these terms and conditions by the Scholar be affected or prejudiced.
14. The University may at its discretion vary these terms and conditions, or amend or issue additional guidelines with respect to the Scholarship, from time to time with notice. If the Scholar does not accept such variation, amendment or issuance, he/she is entitled to terminate the Scholarship in accordance with clause 10 above. Where the Scholar continues to accept the monthly stipend and/or the tuition fee subsidy after such notification, he/she shall be deemed to have accepted such variation, amendment or issuance.
